My Fellow Princetonian,

I hope that this issue has convinced you that the Tory is a student publication worth supporting.

Our goal is to offer a real debate on campus issues between liberals and conservatives, not to continue a campus culture of toeing the University's liberal line. We present the best of conservative ideas, and we train conservatives how to think and to challenge institutional liberalism.

A few more things. If you give $25 or more to the Tory we will send you a full year of issues. And a contribution of $500 or more earns you a lifetime subscription. Also, if it is more convenient for you, please consider donating online at www.princetontory.com. Remember, only the Tory will give you a campus perspective distinct from the administration's narrative.

Please consider giving one of the following amounts:

$25 $50 $100 $250
 $500 $1,000 Other $ _____
